

Connections Between UC Davis & France: Awards for Study in France

UC Davis Global Affairs and Study Abroad are the grant winners for The Transatlantic Friendship and Mobility Initiative for Innovation and Collaboration on Study Abroad, issued by Mission Culturelle et Universitaire Française aux Etats-Unis (MCUFEU).

We are pleased to announce scholarship funds for students studying in France in 2017. Award amounts usually range from $1000-$1,500 per student.

Student applicants must be participating in one of the following UC Davis Summer Abroad or UCEAP Abroad programs.

Eligible
Programs:

UC Davis Summer Abroad

France, Performing Arts Live!
France, Art Studio in Paris and the French Riviera
France, Americans in Paris
France, Fashion Marketing in Paris
France, Introduction to Winemaking

The award will open January 11, 2017. Students must be saved a spot by March 7, 2017. You do not have to be eligible for financial aid in order to receive an award & incomplete applications will not be considered. Student awardees are expected to develop a brief project (e.g. blog, vlog, or photo essay) to promote future awards that can be used for future marketing.

Please follow these steps if applying to a UC Davis Faculty-Led program. This is the same application process to apply to a Study Abroad Award. You can apply for both with the same essay: (1) Log into your Study Abroad account, (2) Click "Search Scholarships" tab, (3) Click "Apply Now", (4) Follow the online instructions and answer both prompts:

Prompt 1: How the specific study abroad program you have chosen is related to your academic, personal, or professional goals (700 word limit; please remember to include a title).

Prompt 2: If you are facing social, economic, or other substantial challenges to study abroad, please describe them (300 word limit).

UCEAP Programs in 2017: Summer, Fall or Year

If you are applying to a UCEAP program taking place in 2017, answer prompts #1 and #2 above and turn in a hard copy to the Study Abroad office.

Deadline: Tuesday, March 7, 2017
Late applications will not be accepted

France Award recipients will be announced via email by: Tuesday, April 4th, 2017
