HOW DO I BEGIN?

DEFINE YOUR ACADEMIC GOALS
While abroad, would you want to:

- fulfill major or minor credit
- do lab research or an internship
- master a second language
- Take GEs or something just for fun?

PLAN EARLY
The sooner you plan your study abroad experience, the more options you have. Program deadlines can be very early.

INCLUDE STUDY ABROAD IN YOUR ACADEMIC PLAN
Meet with your major advisor to discuss quarters that you can be away from UC Davis, coursework that will need to be made up, and coursework that can be taken abroad.

TALK TO A STUDY ABROAD ADVISOR
Study abroad has over 400 programs in 40+ countries and every region of the globe. Let us help you find the perfect one!

WHY STUDY ABROAD?

⇒ Don’t be a passive learner; expand your worldview by experiencing another culture firsthand
⇒ Explore your subject area from a different perspective
⇒ Master that second language by immersing yourself where it’s spoken regularly
⇒ Enhance resumes and/or applications for graduate school
⇒ Participate in research and internships not available at UC Davis
⇒ Have the adventure of a lifetime

CAN I AFFORD IT?

Financial aid goes with you. Once you narrow down programs you are interested in, meet with our Study Abroad financial aid advisor to see how your aid will be adjusted for study abroad. Aid will vary depending on your package and the type of program chosen.

Scholarships are available — check out the “Finances” section of our website for a list of program based or prestigious scholarships.

You are strolling along the River Thames, carrying books for your courses at King’s College London. You’re fulfilling your UC Davis English major electives by taking classes not offered at UC Davis such as “Subjects of Desire in Medieval Religious Writings” and “Intellectuals of the Black Atlantic World”. Maybe later you’ll head to Fortnum & Mason for an afternoon tea before meeting up with your British friends to take on the legendary London nightlife.
