Join UC Davis Study Abroad Advisor Jena Hatch and Academic Advisor Amy Lowrey for an Info Session in studying abroad in French, German, Italian, Russian, Comparative Literature, and Religious Studies. Students in International Relations, Political Science, Communication and other social sciences and humanities are also invited to consider going abroad to work toward a double major. Programs range from summer to yearlong, with internship and research opportunities, all over the world from Florence to St. Petersburg and everywhere in between. Come learn more!
