Study Abroad Awards

UC Davis Study Abroad is pleased to announce study abroad awards for participants in Summer, Summer Internships, and Fall Quarter Abroad 2018 programs.

Eligibility: All students, not just at UC Davis, are eligible to apply for an award. Eligible programs: UC Davis Summer Abroad, Internships Abroad, and Fall Quarter Abroad. You must already be enrolled in a 2018 program by the submission deadline; students with incomplete applications will not be considered. You do not have to be eligible for financial aid in order to receive an award.

Responsibility: If you receive an award you must complete a project highlighting your study abroad experience (projects may be shared, in print and/or online, with the UC Davis Study Abroad community—e.g. award donors, faculty, staff). There are three Project Tracks available to choose from: (1) Blogging & Photography, (2) Video and/or Social Media Storytelling (Snapchat and Instagram), or (3) Podcasting/Audio Reflection. Full details will be provided when awards recipients are announced.

To Apply: Please follow these steps: (1) Log into your Study Abroad account, (2) Click “Search Scholarships” tab, (3) Click “Apply Now”, (4) Follow the online instructions and submit a response to the first prompt:

(1) How the specific study abroad program you have chosen is related to your academic, personal, or professional goals (700 word limit; please remember to include a title).

The second prompt (below) is optional. Some of the Study Abroad Awards will include financial need as a criteria (others will not):

(2) If you are facing social, economic, or other substantial challenges to study abroad, please describe them (300 word limit).

Award amounts usually range from $500-$2,000 per student.
