Seminars Abroad Awards

UC Davis Study Abroad is pleased to announce study abroad awards for participants in Seminars Abroad 2018 programs.

Eligibility: The following students are eligible to apply: UC Davis Seminars Abroad, “Poland—Equine Welfare and Management” and UC Davis Seminars Abroad, “Rome—Art and the City.” You must already be enrolled in a 2018 program by the submission deadline; students with incomplete applications will not be considered. You do not have to be eligible for financial aid in order to receive an award.

Responsibility: If you receive an award you must complete a project highlighting your study abroad experience (projects may be shared, in print and/or online, with the UC Davis Study Abroad community—e.g. award donors, faculty, staff). There are three Project Tracks available to choose from: (1) Article Writing/Blogging, (2) Social Media Storytelling, or (3) Photo Journalism. Full details will be provided when awards recipients are announced.

To Apply: Applications open on May 2, 2018. Please follow these steps: (1) Log into your Study Abroad account, (2) Click “Search Scholarships” tab, (3) Click “Apply Now”, (4) Follow the online instructions and submit a response to the first prompt:

(1) How the specific study abroad program you have chosen is related to your academic, personal, or professional goals (700 word limit; please remember to include a title).

The second prompt (below) is optional. Some of the Study Abroad Awards will include financial need as a criteria (others will not):

(2) If you are facing social, economic, or other substantial challenges to study abroad, please describe them (300 word limit).

Award amounts usually range from $500-$1,000 per student.

Deadline: Wednesday, June 6, 2018
Late applications will not be accepted

Study Abroad Award recipients will be announced via email by: Wednesday, June 27, 2018
