STUDY ABROAD IN:
HUMANITIES, LANGUAGE AND CULTURE STUDIES

Classical Civilization · Comparative Literature · English · Medieval and Early Modern Studies · Religious Studies · African American and African Studies · American Studies · Asian American Studies · Chicana/Chicano Studies · Chinese · German · Italian · Japanese · Native American Studies · Russian · Spanish · East Asian Studies · Middle East/South Asia Studies

WHY STUDY ABROAD?

⇒ Don’t be a passive learner; expand your worldview by experiencing another culture firsthand
⇒ Master that second language by immersing yourself where it’s spoken regularly
⇒ Enhance resumes and/or applications for graduate school
⇒ Participate in research and internships not available at UC Davis

HOW DO I BEGIN?

DEFINE YOUR ACADEMIC GOALS

While abroad, would you want to:
• fulfill major or minor credit;
• intern or volunteer;
• master a second language;
• take GEs or something just for fun?

PLAN EARLY

• Deadlines vary by program and are 3 to 9 months in advance
• The sooner you plan, the more options you have.

TALK TO YOUR MAJOR ADVISOR

Meet with your major advisor to discuss:
• What courses to take abroad
• When is best to go for your major
• What you will need to complete upon return

You are strolling along La Vega markets of Santiago, carrying books for your courses at the University of Chile. You’re fulfilling your UC Davis Spanish major electives by taking classes not offered at UC Davis such as Poetry of Miral and Parra and Children’s Literature of Latin America. Maybe later you’ll head to dinner with your Chilean friends before taking on the legendary Santiago nightlife.

CAN I AFFORD IT?
