UC Davis Summer Abroad is pleased to announce $80,000 in study abroad awards to participants in UC Davis Summer Abroad 2014 programs.

Eligibility: You must already be enrolled in a UC Davis Summer Abroad 2014 program by the submission deadline; students with incomplete applications will not be considered. You do not have to be eligible for financial aid in order to receive an award.

Responsibility: If you receive an award you must complete a project (during or after your program) highlighting your study abroad experience. Examples include creating a short video for our website, writing a story for your campus newspaper, presenting a slideshow to a class, etc. Projects may be shared with award donors.

To Apply: Submit this form, a copy of your transcript (unofficial is acceptable), and a one-page essay addressing one of these two topics:

1) How the specific study abroad program you have chosen is related to your academic, personal, or professional goals

or

2) How challenges you have faced in life or schooling have shaped your plans to study abroad

Awards amounts will range from $500 to $2,000 per student.

Essay Guidelines:
12-point font and one-inch margins
One page in length
Single or double spaced
Do not staple

Return completed application to:

UC Davis Summer Abroad
207 Third Street, Suite 120, Davis, CA 95616

Deadline: Thursday, March 6, 2014, 5:00pm

Late applications will not be accepted

Study Abroad Award recipients will be announced via email by Monday, March 31, 2014.

For information about additional scholarship and funding opportunities for Summer Abroad, visit: studyabroad.ucdavis.edu/students/finances.html