

Sydney Sample Internship List – Public Relations

Sydney Harbour Foreshore Authority	Sydney Harbour Foreshore Authority is a NSW State Government agency responsible for Sydney's most historically and culturally significant waterfront locations. Their role is to: Restore, preserve, manage and promote some of Australia's most important heritage buildings and areas. They also run events, community and education programs. In addition to these they also manage properties, carry out capital works and undertake major projects. The Foreshore Authority is one of the biggest landholders in Sydney, owning just over 400 hectares. It also manages a number of other properties on behalf of other NSW Government agencies.
MAX Australia	Max Australia is a public relations and communications company. They pride themselves on fresh ideas and intuitive in their approach. They cover a whole range of areas from technology to corporate, consumer and finance sectors, and provide all their clients with unparalleled levels of strategic advice and the tactical execution of first-class campaigns. They work closely with their sister company Spectrum Communications to provide the best service possible to their clients.
Liquid Ideas	Liquid Ideas is a specialist marketing, public relations and events business within the "leisure and lifestyle" industries. They deliver strategic marketing and public relations expertise to make clients better recognized and respected by their customers, the media, the trade and their peers. Liquid Ideas has partnered some of the most recognized businesses in Australia since its inception in 2000 and its range of successes has been substantial.
Klick Communication	Klick Communications is a PR driven Marketing Communications Collective. Harnessing the power of communications, Klick creates and executes innovative marketing strategies and tactical PR solutions, resulting in a meaningful story that will connect their clients with the desired target audience. With an in-depth industry understanding across lifestyle, travel and entertainment sectors, Klick work with a mix of traditional and new media outlets. They are adept at all forms of public relations, know what it takes to get their message across and are highly responsive to the 24/7 media world.
Krites	Krites is a collective of creative, dynamic and professional individuals who have a passion for fashion. Krites are a specialist Sales, Marketing and PR, and Distribution Company with a primary focus on brand management.